My opinion about..... Intolerance RTV, Slovenia

Presenter: 25 countries are going to work together and get closer in the future. That also means, that we need to be tolerant and open upon other cultures and habits. In our serial about young Europeans and their opinions, we have reached one of the future member states of EU, Slovenia. What do their future voters mean about intolerance?

Subtitles are written on the screen

My opinion about.... Intolerance
RTV, Slovenia

Luan, Milenko, Aleš, David

- I believe everyone has his or her own taste. I think, there is quite a difference between the two of us, or even between the two of us.

Andreja, Lidija

- We don't know each other very well in our class, although we've been together for four years now and we don't accept others, who are different or socially different. We don't accept that others cannot afford things. Or regarding their looks, who is thin or obese. There are always remarks.

Tina, Domen

- I've chosen people around me, who are pleasant, we have an easy relationship, I don't perceive intolerance. When I go out and meet new people there can be some kind of rivalry, intolerance of that kind, that's normal.
- I know people who are intolerant towards people who are different. I know people who are intolerant because they are jealous. But in general I can say that intolerance is not a really big issue.

Barbara, Jasmina, Maruša

- My classmates, or well my classmate, he has something against rave. And against the styling, and the music, although he does not know what it is all about, he has always something against it.
- I don't like it when others are bothered by hair colour or piercings or something like that.

- We all make mistakes by judging people by their looks. The real impression you know? It is hard to get rid of it.

Andrej, David

- There is a difference it depends – when we as diocese grammar school students – well in our school we have this skovilarji – well there is definitely intolerance.

Amadeja, Anja

- Well I don't know – gypsies – for example and then...
- Also intolerance towards older women...
- Yes...
- Or violence within the family, there is a lot of intolerance in families and so on...

Dejan

I don't notice that. I don't know, I don't think so. Maybe there is but I can't see it.
