

Manuscript
Children and pollution
EBS, Belgium

Presenter: The problems with pollution are getting bigger and bigger, and soon we will not be able to look through fingers with this issue. The European politicians have already for years acknowledged this problem, and in this programme some experts and politicians are talking about what to do

Participants:

The names are written on the screen

Translation:

The item is in English talking